

FAQ

I have more than one child – how will a staggered start work?

Staggered start and end times are there to minimise contacts at the school gate and during travel. They are a necessary step in protecting you and your child.

We are asking parents to arrive at times based on surnames – and so most families will not have a problem with split arrival times even if they have children in more than one year group.