

Lydgate Junior School Extreme Reading Challenge 2020

Calling all extreme readers!

Do you love to read in weird and wonderful places? Do you have an ultimate reading den? Do you take a book wherever you go?

We want to know!

Bring in a photograph of yourself reading in an unusual place by Thursday 5th March 2019 (World Book Day) and hand it in to your teacher.

On that day, all entries will be judged, and a winner will be chosen from each year group.

Good luck and happy reading!
