Main Duties and Responsibilities

Lydgate Junior School is a fabulous school with a great reputation. The school is oversubscribed because of its atmosphere, the children's attitude to learning and their behaviour, and its reputation for high standards. Our children achieve high standards academically, in sport and culture. We are seeking a HLTA to support highly effective teaching through PPA cover.

As a large school we work in strong teams that support colleagues and provide opportunities to develop and enjoy specialisms. We are looking for people with the skills, expertise and experience necessary to add an extra dimension to our work, and to maintain the quality of our provision. You should be able to support our ethos; enjoy working with children; work well with children with a range of special needs; motivate others; take opportunities to make learning engaging for all pupils.

We need a HLTA, working 37 hrs per week to start in September. The successful candidates will:

- Have a diverse set of skills which will enable them to be flexible while working with children
- Have good organisational and interpersonal skills that motivate and inspire children to achieve their very best
- Be able to access children's progress and focus upon their steps
- Be committed to raising standards and developing the best education for all our pupils
- Be resilient, determined and focused on pupil progress.
- Have the knowledge and understanding of the National Curriculum to be able to support KS2 children
- Have a understanding of child development and learning
- Will have GCSE Grade C (or equivalent) in English and maths
- Will have met higher level teaching assistant standards or equivalent qualification or experience
