

Announcing Lydgate Junior School's illustrator competition

Think Quentin Blake, Vashti Harrison, Axel Scheffler, Nick Sharratt, Laura Freeman, Chris van Allsburg – there are so many wonderful illustrators out there whose pictures bring stories to life. So this year, let's celebrate illustrators as well as authors!

All you need to do is create a picture inspired by your favourite illustrator and follow these rules:

Entry requirements

- A4 or A3 in size
- Any medium – pencil drawings, watercolours, collage, felt pens, pastels
- Name and class on the back of your work
- Entries to Mrs Purdom by end of the day on Monday 27th February

All entries will be displayed in school and winners (there will be book prizes!) will be announced on World Book Day.
